Announcements

Welcome to Church this morning! May God's presence be among us today, and may His Word bless our hearts and minds as we worship and study together.

Sabbath Reflection: "This neglect to stand up firmly for truth was the sin of Aaron. Had he spoken the truth plainly, that golden calf would never have been made. The same spirit that led him to shun to declare the whole truth for fear of offending, led him to act a falsehood in pointing to the golden calf as a representation of the One who brought them from Egypt."
